

CERTIFIED GLOBAL COMPENSATION PROFESSIONAL®

Globalization has increased the complexity of doing business - creating culturally diverse workforces due to the dynamic increase in worker mobility.

Technological advances have resulted in new tools for making effective workforce management decisions and developing performance and rewards management strategies that are effective.

The trend towards having work performed by contractors, consultants and freelancers has made it necessary to formulate performance and rewards management strategies that fit the work and those performing it.

WHY ATTEND THIS CERTIFICATION PROGRAMME?

Given the growing need for reward professionals in the world, the purpose of this programme is to provide professionals with learning experiences, concepts, skills and procedures that will help them develop and leverage human expertise - improving both personal and organisational performance through Reward.
